JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

PORTRAITS OF CARPET-BAG CONGRESSMEN.

The well-known former correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, ("Mack,") now one of the editors of the Cincinnati Enquirer, seems to have studied the variety of the genus homo, known as carpet baggers, to some purpose. In a letter from Washington of the 8th ultimo he says:

It would be safe to wager a thousand dollars that if hell were dosed with tartar emetic, the last dregs of the last reaulting emetic, would be ten or a dozen of the style of men who have come here under the Congressional policy of reconstruction to represent the Southern States. They have already manifested all the attributes of interlopers and "dead beats," and have carried their effrontery to such an extent as to disgust even the most loyal of their Northern Republican colleagues.

It is related that when Abbe Sieyes objected to the confiscation of church property which was proposed in one of the debates in the revolutionary assembly of France, Mirabeau turned to him and said, "My dear Abbe, you have loosed the bull. Do you think he will not use his horns?" The logic was unanswerable. And so with Congress and the carpet baggers. They have not only loosed but created a set of the vilest wretches that God in his wisdom tolerates to live, or man in his folly hesitates to hang; and when they look for anything but what they now complain of, they only repeat the mistake of which Mirabeau reminded his colleague.

THE LIVES OF THE CARPET-BAGGERS—A FORTHCOMING WORK BY DR. ATKINSON, OF DANVILLE.

DANVILLE, February 1st, 1869.

I purpose to publish, as soon as the necessary information shall be procured, to enable me do full justice to the enterprising adventurers who have come "down South" in search of "an opening" to acquire place and pelf, a volume, in which shall be given the origin and progress of "The Carpet-baggers," the crimes which they committed "down to hum," the punishment to which they were subjected therefor, the tricks to which they have resorted to effect their purposes, since they have been amongst us, and every incident in their lives which may serve to show them in their true character. I shall

"Nothing extenuate, Nor set down aught in malice," but I shall endeavor to subject them to the greatest imaginable humiliation, by doing them full and impartial justice, showing that as the patriotic immigrants to Botany Bay, "they left their country for their country's good."

Particular attention shall be given to those of this pestilence race who have succeded in reaching the high and honorable position of a member of Congress, of either of our State Conventions or Legislatures, of Governor, Judge, Commonwealth's Attorney, Mayor, Clerk of a court, &c.

I earnestly solicit the aid of the public, in this labor of love and duty; and I respectfully request that all persons who possess the desired information will do me the favor to communicate it to me by mail, directed to Danville, Virginia.

Editors throughout the country who may be disposed to favor this enterprise of a former member of their corps, will oblige me by inserting this notice in their respective journals and calling the public attention to it. THOMAS P. ATKINSON.

A BISHOP MISTAKEN FOR A KUKLUX.—The southern negroes, in their horror of Kuklux mysteries, are particularly fearful of graveyards. They have always been superstitious in this regard, but now they will not go within a mile of a cemetery. An amusing story is told about Bishop Beckwith, of Georgia, who had occasion some time ago to visit a remote portion of his diocese.

There were not many Episcopalians in that region of Georgia; but few of the whites had ever seen a successor of the Apostles, and the negroes did not know what sort of a creature a bishop was. It soon became noised about that on a certain evening the Bishop would arrive, and hold services in a church of a certain village of the above district, and the whole neighborhood was filled with curiosity to go and see the queer animal that read prayers out of a book. The negroes were especially excited, and they determined to attend the church en masse. The house of worship was not an Episcopal church; consequently it had no vestry room in which the bishop could put on his vestments. This difficulty was, however, remedied by some one's suggesting that the bishop should robe himself behind the church and come round and enter at the front door. So he sent a friend with his surplice, who placed it behind a tomb stone, where it would be at hand when he should require it. Long before the time designated for the opening services the little church had become filled with the whites of the vicinity, and the negroes, finding that there was no room for them inside stood packed before the door. The bishop at the appointed time entered the graveyard by the back gate, went up to the tombstone, and donned his episcopal vestures. The wind was blowing rather fresh, and just as he turned the corner of the church a flaw spread out his white robes. A negro immediately bawled out, "Kuklux! Kuklux!" They all looked around and beheld the flaunting white garments approaching; the whole crowd took to their heels, shrieking 'Kuklux!" In ten seconds not a single darkey could be seen, but the sound of their footsteps in the distance fell upon the ear, and for half an hour afterwards could be heard the terrible words, "Kuklux!" 'Kuklux!" far off in the country, as the affrighted crowd were making for their homes.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning a fire occurred in the three-story frame building corner of north Third and Fourth streets, Williamsburg. The first floor was occupied as a grocery by J. G. Eden, and the upper stories by a number of families. The occupants were all in bed at the time, and being awakened by the smoke and crackling of the flames, rushed about in the wildest confusion to find a way of escape. The stairs were on fire, and all means of egress appeared to be shut off. The police and firemen placed ladders at the windows, and did everything possible to rescue the unfortunate occupants, in which they succeeded to a certain exent.

Mothers and fathers collected in the street, all in their night-clothes, and gathered their children around them. The scene was most distressing. The third floor front was occupied by Frederick Thorn, whose family consisted of his wife and five children. Mr. and Mrs. Thorn, with two children, escaped from the burning building, and, supposing the others had been saved by the firemen, searched through the crowd to find them. After vainly looking around, they ascertained, to their horror, that the three children had been left to perish in the flames. One, a girl, was two years of age; the other, a boy, four years old; and the third, a girl, six years of age. Their charred remains were subsequently recovered. The grief stricken parents were almost distracted on account of the terrible calamity which had befallen them.—New York Commercial, Thursday.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOSWICK,.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS,.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE,.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER,.....Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D.,.Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also

Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES

WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or range, in any boiler, and its LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles from the most coarse to the end-bit lace. For Flannels it is unrivaled, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1869.

CARLYLE SWINE'S TROUGH AND HOG PHILOSOPHY.

Carlyle says, "so far as some conjectures go, this universe is one immeasurable swine's trough, consisting of solids and liquids, and other contrasts and kinds."

"The trough has in it the attainable and unattainable, the latter in the greatest quantities for the most hogs." Moral evil, he defines to be "the unattainable of hog slop. Moral good, the attainability of hog slop."

Now, the South is emphatically the hog trough of the North. We have them here, old hogs, young hogs and pigs.—we could have written, the feminine of hogs, but that would be to imitate the Standard in brutish remarks upon unoffending women, and we will not write, say, or think it. If we should, we would deserve the cane of every carpet-bag office-holder, whose wife or daughter has followed him down into this hog trough of the Union.

Ask the Rev. Pepper to define the whole duty of hogs, and he will say, it is the mission of universal hoghood, and the duty of all northern hogs, at all times, to diminish the quantity of unattainables and increase that of the attainable. All knowledge, and device, and effort, ought to be directed thither, and thither only. Hog science, hog enthusiasm and hog devotion, should have this one aim. And this is the whole duty of hogdom.

Ask carpet-bag Menninger, Secretary of State, what is hog economy, and he will say, to feed on unlimited and undefined quantities of stationery; give fifty hands in the Senate 96 quarts, or bottles of ink, 880 quires of paper; spend $1,250 in one month for stationery, and then intimate that the Doorkeeper has been selling it on the streets.

Ask Pilgrim Ashley what are the ups and downs in hogdom, and he will say, "putting the native swine out of their pen (the Court room) into the cockloft of the Capitol, and then, by the Legislature, being elevated to the same cockloft myself."

Ask Lassiter what is hog commerce, and he will say, selling kildee land to Littlefield at $20 an acre, and the buying of Littlefield's Ring for the Penitentiary at $100,000.

Ask Littlefield who are hog lawyers, and he will say, servants of God and Congress, sent down to reconstruct you, and locate your Penitentiary, one of whom Judge Alden "is which."

Ask the Public Treasurer, David Jenkins, and Penitentiary Pruyn, what is hog financeering, and they will say, Pruyn's purchasing member's certificates at a discount, and getting the money from the Treasurer when payment was refused to the members themselves.

Ask Rev. Col'ards Whitson what is loyal hog piety, and he will say, leaving the Baptist Church and joining the Methodist, then quitting the native Methodist, and joining the Methodist Church North, while living in the South. Frequenting the Republican head quarters, where the Editor of the Standard, Littlefield, furnishes much free liquor, rowing with Ball, the Doorkeeper of the Senate, and taking cooked collards home from the negro barbecue—and this is hog piety.

Ask Judge Cantwell what is hog prosperity, and he will say, to be Governor of all Norfolk, and Judge of all Wilmington, and unlimited attainability of hog slop, such as Judge Tourgee enjoys with his salary of $2,400 as Code Commissioner and his salary of $3,500 as Judge.

Ask Judge Cloud what is hog-eye justice, and he will say, presiding at Davidson Court, when Gov. Holden's friend and Director on the N. C. Railroad, Hon. W. F. Henderson, was on trial for stealing Darr's mule, and the Judge looking at him through Frank Blair's gold spectacles, of which the Rebels plundered him when they burnt his house at Silver Spring.

Ask Judge Tourgee what is hog truth, and he will say, stating at the Philadelphia Convention, that "a Quaker told me he saw fifteen dead negroes drawn from a mill pond, who had been murdered by rebels," and that's hog truth.

Ask Rev. Professor Brewer what is hog promotion, and he will say, "my going from the head of a little negro school in this City, to a Professor's Chair in the University of North Carolina, where President Polk and the great men of the nation were educated," and that's hog promotion.

Ask the Lieut. Governor, Tod R. Caldwell what is hog gratitude, and he will say, "Governor Vance giving me, during the war, a position by which I kept out of the army and then my telling Bogle, after the war, d—n Vance, I would like to see him hung." Ask Tod what is hog-vengeance, and he will say, "my making a war speech in Burke for volunteers, at a precinct where there were 120 Union men and five secessionist, and after the war, apologising for the speech and saying, I did it to make the d—n secessionists volunteer, that they might go in the army and be killed," and that is hog vengeance.

Ask Byron Laflin, sometimes called General, what is hog-poetry, and he will say, "to be appointed State proxy, by Holden, on the North Carolina Railroad, have a free pass over all the Railroads of the State, and lend them to your friends.

Ask Rev. Collards Whitson what is a Chaplain, and he will say, an overseer of military souls, without distinction of color, whose duty it is to imitate Rev. Pepper, by letting his own soul sleep all the week and wake it up Sunday with hallelujah's to old John Brown's soul "marching on."

Ask Coleman, Attorney General, what is hog-judicature, and he will say, mortgage deeds need no revenue stamp; vide, my opinion to the Treasurer.

SENATOR SWEET.

We were not mistaken in the opinion we enunciated a few days since, that Senator Sweet had not lost caste with his constituents in Craven, by his bold stand against the corruption which is supposed, and believed to exist in the Legislature, as well as among a certain Ring or Rings, outside of that body. His county papers, of both parties, commend him, in high tones—and especially does the N. Bern Times, the organ of the Radical party in that section, while the Standard, the presump ive leader of the party, in the State, is engaged in abusing and villifying him, and calling upon the Senate to expel him, and taunting the majority in the Senate with the lack of "backbone," because they do not obey its mandates. We dare say, the majority would like very much to get rid of Mr. Sweet, if they could do so—nor do we believe they would stickle at the means to accomplish these ends, provided they had the nerve to back them up,—but they really have neither nerve nor backbone, for the work, although they are said to be "bully strong and as stubborn as a jack." They know, too, that Mr. Sweet defies them, and tells them so from his seat in the Senate, and if expelled, he would be most assuredly returned by a unanimous vote—receiving the vote of his own party, as well as that of the Conservative.

We give below, the extract from the Times:

"We have carefully watched the bribery and corruption case that has been the principal topic of conversation and interest, in Raleigh and elsewhere, for the past two months, through its different stages, and have read the remarks of W. H. S. Sweet, Senator from Craven, which he made before the Senate, Friday, January 28th, on the report of the Joint Select Committee on Bribery and Corruption. Those who have succeeded in worming themselves out of the evil he has drawn about them, have done it by using their utmost endeavors to evade the questions at issue, by putting principal witnesses out of the way, and in every possible manner trying to prevent a full, fair and free investigation. If under these circumstances Senator Sweet, and the few who stood by him, have failed to prove in black and white to the Senate that every one of the alleged or supposed cases could be sustained, the people of North Carolina are convinced that the examination amounts to something, and that a fair and unbiased investigation, with all the principal witnesses present would have told a story that would make angles weep. Senator Sweet can rest assured that the whole population of Craven county, fully believe in him, trust his honesty and integrity, and honor him for standing where many would have fallen, an I doing all in his power to expose knavery and claim justice to the people. The people of Craven only want an opportunity to show again, their confidence in their Senator, and if he was to-day a nominee for the position he now occupies, he would be elected by such a majority as this county seldom rolls up for any body. Honesty in its true and fullest sense is so rare now a days that the genuine article it fully appreciated. Shakspeare speaks true words when he says:

"Ay Sir, to be honest as the world goes,
Is to be one picked out of ten thousand."

The remarks of Senator Sweet are so plain and so convincing, that they cannot but inspire respect for him, and lasting contempt for the men who have in every possible way tried to cover up what should be brought to light and thwart the purposes of honest men. It was a sorry time for some designing money making politicians when Senator Sweet got in their train, and it will be many a day before the affair and their complicity in it is forgotten."

We find the following items of news in the Hillsboro' Recorder, of the 4th:

The dwelling house of Mr. Morris, near this place was struck by lightning on Friday night. The lightning first struck a tree about 30 yards from the house and splintered it to the ground—the tree was large enough to make 14 rails to the cut. It then passed to the South window of the house; tore the sash to atoms, and knocked nine lights out.

We learn that the mill of Mr. George Mebane, in the western part of this county, was entered and robbed of 180 pounds of flour last week. Three inside keys were also stolen.

On the north prong of Little River, in Person County, last Friday, there was quite a hail storm. It fell several inches deep, nearly knocking the shingles from the house of a Mr. Wilson; one mile and a half South from there, there wasn't a drop.

Some of our farmers have already sown their oats; they availed themselves of the beautiful spring-like weather we have had.

Mrs. Jane McCauley, better known in this place as "aunt Jenny" died near here last week. She was 90 odd years of age, and her husband was deputy sheriff here prior to 1800. The deceased, a day or so before her death, walked seven miles, and it is proved too much for her feeble frame to stand.

We learn from the Newbern Journal of Commerce of the 4th, that, as the train of the A. & N. C. Railroad was about two miles from Newport, the axle of the locomotive tender broke, throwing the rear of the tender, and rear of the passenger cars from the track, breaking the axle of the car, and a wheel of the baggage car. The latter was thrown a distance of ten or twelve feet. Fortunately the train was not in very rapid revolution and no accident to life or limb occurred. Assistance was promptly dispatched from this city, and the disabled train brought up about 8 o'clock.

After all, there is a way, by and through which, visitors may enter the House of Representatives, and occupy standing room in the lobby. We understand each member is allowed to give a friend, or friends, tickets of admission, which, on presentation to the door-keeper, gains admission from the holder.

The Cape Fear Bank building, in Greensboro,' was sold, on Monday last, at auction, for $4,000.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Feb. 5, 1869.

The following protest of Senator Robbins, with his statement of the facts in his case, was entered upon the Journal, to-wit:

As the Senate Journals contain a record of the grave charge of bribery against me, and certain action of the Senate thereon, I hereby enter my solemn protest against all that may appear, tending to create the impression that I was ever really guilty of bribery or corruption. This I do to vindicate my name and character in the eyes of my countrymen and of impartial posterity.

These are the facts: Mr. J. W. Stephens was a contestant for a seat in this body, at the Summer session of 1868, but failed to establish his right to it. A resolution was then introduced, by some Senator, to allow Mr. Stephens mileage and per diem, while here as a contestant. This claim I was in favor of allowing, and I had expressed my purpose to vote for it to several Senators, at various times, a day or two before the occurrence hereinafter narrated. Mr. Lindsay was one of those to whom I had thus expressed myself, as he has sworn. Mr. Melchor, Mr. Cook, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Harrington, all state the same thing, though they have not been sworn.

On Saturday morning, August 22nd., this resolution came up for consideration. That was the last working day of the session; I was extremely busy, and my mind much engaged and absorbed in many matters requiring attention. A short time before that resolution came up, Mr. Stephens met me in the lobby and asked me what I thought of his claim to mileage and per diem. I at once said I was in favor of it and was going to vote for it. This accords with my recollection and his testimony. As I remember it, he then added, as you are in favor of it, I want to employ you as my lawyer to advocate my claim, and as compensation for your trouble I will pay you a fee of twenty dollars. I think I said, that's just as you please, but I will do as you have requested. This was the substance of what passed; and words about "lawyers" and "fee as a lawyer" I know were used. The whole conversation did not, in my opinion, occupy three minutes. It was the only conversation I ever had had with him on the subject. Indeed, I was barely acquainted with him, personally, and do not believe I had ever spoken to him twice before in my life. In an hour or two afterwards, as I was hurrying out of the Capitol, he came to me and handed me the fee without a word.

Now, I can only say that from absence of mind, from the habits of thought of the Court room, from the smallness of the sum, and the hurry I was in that day, this little transaction made so slight an impression on me and awakened so little real attention, that the question of propriety or impropriety did not present itself. Not only was there no intention to do wrong,—there was no thought of wrong. No reasonable man will think that I would have risked my reputation in the hands of almost a stranger, and a political adversary, too, for twenty dollars. This is what I must have done if I was then doing an act consciously wrong or corrupt. And he swears, too that I said no word about concealment or secrecy.

I very soon forgot the incident entirely. During all the discussions on the Resolutions, which I myself introduced, to inquire into the rumors of bribery and corruption, I never once recollected it. Subsequently it flashed on my memory as if by accident. Whilst thinking how pleasant it was to feel blameless and safe from all danger, as the investigation was progressing, suddenly the thought that this little fee had been paid me came to my memory; and as my attention was then alive on such questions, it did not take me an instant to pronounce my own mental verdict on its impropriety, and to resolve to undo it and restore that fee to the giver.

By some means the rumor of this incident reached the ears of men. I saw at once in what an embarrassing position I was placed. I was to be charged with bribery. My name was to be in all men's mouths coupled with a disgraceful imputation about a matter readily misconstrued and not easily explained satisfactorily. I saw that if I denied it, my word and my character might possibly overbear the single man who alone could contradict me, and could perhaps trample down the entire charge as a slander. The temptation was strong. At first I staggered and hesitated. But to do this was wrong, and God helped me to do right. I went voluntarily, before any steps were taken to investigate it, and stated the facts as I have stated them here. It required more than human strength to enable me to do so, and to endure the storm which has followed. But a consciousness of upright intentions has sustained me.

A resolution of censure has been passed. I requested my friends to vote for the censure, because I do not approve the act in itself, and I wished a proper precedent established, and principle vindicated. Some have seemed careless of my feelings. Some have appeared to delight in my humiliation. Many have misunderstood me. A few have sought my total ruin. I forgive them all. Those who have defended me will never regret it. I thank them.

My own judgment is that accidental circumstances have magnified a very trifling incident into a great misfortune to me. It was a mere inadvertence on my part, without the least improper intent or motive. Such is the nearly unanimous opinion of all the Senators, as they have freely expressed it. Might they not have embodied as much in a public act, and thus have done justice to a brother Senator? What may be the ultimate influence of this occurrence on my destiny is unforseen. I leave that to God.

I protest that I am guilty of no bribery, no corruption, no dishonesty. I protest that I am incapable of such things, and utterly abhor them. And now I place here this, my protest and statement and leave my cause to men's common sense and love of justice. They will exonerate from every blot my name and memory.

WM. M. ROBBINS.

By Mr. Smith, of Alleghany: A bill for the relief of S. A. Kelly, Sheriff of Davie Co. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the rules were suspended, and the bill entitled an act to raise revenue, was taken up.

The consideration of the 27th section was resumed, and after being amended, was adopted.

Pending the consideration of the 28th section, various messages were received from the Senate transmitting certain bills for concurrence, which were appropriately disposed of.

The discussion upon the 28th section was resumed, and after some little debate was adopted.

Sections 29, 30, 31, 32, 33 34, 35, 36 and 37, were adopted without amendments.

Section 38 was slightly amended and adopted.

Sections 39 and 40 were adopted without being amended.

Sections 41, 42, 43, 44 and 45 were next discussed, and after amendment were adopted.

The various sections of Schedule C were taken up for consideration, and were adopted without amendment.

The bill being opened to amendment as a whole, Mr. Hodnett moved in Class 1, section 1, line 3, which provides for an ad valorem tax of two fifths of one per cent. in addition to the special taxes, which have been or may be levied to pay interest on bonds issued to or for railroads &c., to strike out the "two-fifths" and insert one-tenth.

Mr. Hodnett said he was willing to vote for a sufficient tax to carry on the government in an economical manner, but in arriving at an estimate as to how much was necessary for that purpose, they should make a calculation upon the figures of the past. The bill though it taxes articles heretofore exempted, (household, kitchen furniture, &c.,) yet it increased the taxation over 300 per cent. He would call on gentlemen who promised the people a cheap government when they went before them in the adoption of the Constitution. They (Republicans) promised that taxation would be lower than ever; now he (Mr. Hodnett) wished to test the truth of such declarations, and, therefore, he offered this amendment, making the tax upon property what it has been heretofore, and not fully 300 per cent. higher than ever, as provided in this bill, as it now stands, &c.

After some debate, Mr. Hodnett's amendment was put to a vote and rejected.

Mr. Pou moved to strike out, in class 1, section 1, all after the word "lent," in line 3 down to, and including the word "corporation" in 5th line, same section, and add to the section the following words: "And the said tax of two fifths of one per cent. shall stand in lieu of all taxes, general or special, levied on the subjects enumerated in the sections by the General Assembly for the present year, Provided, That no part of the taxes raised by this act shall be applied to the payment of interest on any bond or pretended bond of this State issued to any Railroad Company since the first day of April, 1868.

This amendment produced quite a long debate, during which it was characterized as a declaration that the State intended to repudiate &c.

The question recurring upon the amendment, it was put to a vote and lost.

After a long debate upon amendments to various sections, of the bill passed its second reading by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Blair, Carson, Carey, colored, Cawthorn, colored, Crawford, colored, Estes, Forkner, colored, French, Gahagan, Gilbert, Graham, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hayes, colored, Hendricks, Hodgin, Horney, Hudgings, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Leary, colored, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, colored, McCanless, Morrill, Morris, colored, Parker, Price, colored, Renfrow, Reynolds, colored, Seymour, Seigrist, Snipes, Stilley, Sweat, colored, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, White, Wilkie, Williamson, colored, Wilson and Wiswall.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the bill was ordered to be printed as amended, and made special order for Monday next at 11 o'clock.

On motion of J. T. Reynolds, colored, the rules were suspended, and the bill making an appropriation to the University was taken from the Calendar, and referred to Committee on Education.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting and recommending to the favorable consideration of the House, a communication from certain citizens of Louisville, Ky., asking for a contribution from this State for the erection of a monument to the memory of Union soldiers buried in that city, as a considerable number are from North Carolina.

The Chair announced Messrs. Rea, Ingram and Ashworth as the special Committee in regard to fishing in the Albemarle Sound.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House of the passage of the bill incorporating the Jamesville and Washington Railroad and Lumber Company, and asking their concurrence in the same. The bill went on the calendar.

On motion, the House then adjourned till to morrow morning.

It is believed that our mutual plan offers inducements to the people at large, not equaled by other Companies.

The Company has issued a Prospectus to raise a Capital Stock to enable it to take Life risks on the Stock plan. When this is done, the Company will offer a very superior scheme of Life Insurance on this plan.

We want Agents in every city, town and village in the State. The Company will be managed with the strictest economy and efficiency, for the benefit of the insured and all interested.

We must build up our home institutions and, as far as possible, keep our money at home to promote home enterprise, home industry and prosperity. WM. E PELL,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it would seem to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, unhealthful, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is of the highest use to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulation of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869 of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031, and dividend on the life of my late husband. ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.
(Signed) ——, of Newbern, N. C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state, although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend on $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning, and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this twenty-fifth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table with immediate annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 assets, securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities.—Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance. To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnappe, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the results, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less contaminated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnappe, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnappe, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnappe prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnappe, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pursuits who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnappes would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the endorsement which his Schi

OUR FRIEND, ANDREW MILLER, Post Master, has, up to this time, (and we doubt not will so continue,) won the confidence and approbation of all classes by the impartial manner with which he has conducted the affairs of his office. Polite and accommodating as he himself is, he has been fortunate in getting clerks—young men agreeable in their department, and thoroughly acquainted with the routine of business through which they pass, daily. The amount of work which they are daily called upon to perform, is unknown to the great multitude who pop in and out, and call for letters—yet, mistakes in our post office are of rare occurrence—seldom heard of—and we trust that Mr. Miller, and his corps of clerks, will remain where they are for many years yet to come.

The present schedules of the Raleigh & Gaston, and of the North Carolina Road, throws a double duty on this office. The mail on the Gaston Road arrives at 5 o'clock, is opened, distributed and delivered. The mail from the East arrives one hour later, which is also distributed and delivered,—causing, also, extra trouble to our business men, who have to make two calls at the post office, when one would do, if the North Carolina Road would quicken its speed between Raleigh and Goldsboro only one hour.

NEW LIFE INSURANCE CO.—Our readers will find in our columns to-day, the announcement, that the North Carolina Life Assurance, Anuity, and Trust Company is now ready to issue polices on the Mutual plan. It is a North Carolina Company, and therefore its claims are entitled to be considered by our people. Its present plan is clearly set forth so that every one can understand it, in a Circular issued by the Company, which can be had on application to the Secretary or the Agents.

The plan has been recently modified so as to adapt itself to all ages and conditions.—The membership is divided into two classes, each class paying according to age the assessments fixed at the time of insuring.—The Second Class pays double the First and receives double benefits. The permanent fund of each Class is an important feature, which properly managed as it will be, will yield a sufficient amount of profit in a few years to pay policies, which will greatly relieve the frequency of assessments. The whole scheme strikes us favorably. It is especially adapted to the condition of the body of our people, whose means are small. Imitating the Masonic plan, its assessments are paid in small amounts upon the death of members of each class.

We are advocates of Life and of Fire Insurance. Among the number of good Companies among us doing business each perhaps, has its peculiar claims This, on account of its cheapness, its simplicity and because it is a home institution, deserves consideration and encouragement.

A GANG of seven or eight convicts left their cells in the county prison, Thursday, to take up winter quarters at the county work house.

"Charles M. Farris, Keeper of the Capitol," has issued the following in handbill form: "The public, and persons generally, are warned not to commit any nusiance in the Capitol ground, as the law against it will be strictly enforced."

If there is a law in existence authorizing the "Keeper of the Capitol" to remove nuisances from the Capitol enclosure, we hope that functionary will have it enforced, forthwith, as there certainly exists a gang around and within the walls, who have proved a very offensive nuisance to the State of North Carolina.

CAPT. KERR.—A gentleman who left the city of New York, a day or two since, informs us that about ten days ago, Capt. Kerr, of this State, son of the Hon. John Kerr, of Caswell, walked out from the St. Nicholas Hotel, N. Y., and has not been heard of since, although the detectives have searched diligently for him. The baggage of Capt K. remains at the St. Nicholas.

THE TARBORO' Southerner represents the paupers in the Edgecombe poor house as being wretchedly cared for. The tax collected in that county appears to be inadequate to furnish the necessary food for these unfortunate creatures.

SHAD is selling in Newbern at 65 cents per pair. Let this fact be borne in mind, when our people are called on to pay the hucksters, at the market the enormous price of $1 50 per pair.

LOUISBURG RAILROAD, &c.

MR. EDITOR:—Man likes to rivet the public attention only while it gives him praise and adulation. As he loses its admiring gaze in descending the pinnacle, he, in proportion, seeks the shades of obscurity, and when at the bottom of the declivity, looks around, in vain, for an open sepulchre in which to hide from its contempt, and bury his shame. But is there not a point in the downward history of all the degenerate sons of Adam, where a little thought and energy could relift them to their lost position?

The young man, bereft of friends and fortune, rushing with headlong velocity down to ruin, could by will and determination—the casting behind him foolish pride, and laying hold of honest labor—regain, step by step, not only his former eminence, but far exceed it, and scale the very acme of greatness.

In devout allegiance to this theory (and no other consideration could induce me to do this,) I now lift the veil, and expose to view the opiatic influences which prey upon my once gay and happy village. The war cry of eighteen sixty one echoed and re-echoed o'er the fair hills of my native county—penetrating palace and cot, and falling with engaging earnestness upon the hearts of the brave and the young. And from the forum, the counting room, the field and ploughshare, rushed to its summons men, in manhood's prime, and of manhood's worth. But the war raged and stormed, in virulence and violence; our fortunes were swept away, our comforts vanished, hopes fled, and hearts bled, but our braves were not returned to us, nor the cause achieved, for which they fought, bled and died. And when arms were stacked and piece proclaimed, no bright effulgence burst upon us from peaceful skies, but the smoke and debries, the hate and passion of the war remained, and with it, political enemies have buffetted us till man's innate spirit is nearly exhausted. And while this is applicable to the whole South, it is peculiarly so to this village nest of six hundred souls. As I walk down its cheerless streets, and pass the gloomy, vacated houses, which intercept the tenanted habitations, (from which issue now and then its meek land lord) on to the business part of the town, where stands a mule tied, a cart empty, the Post-Master yawning in his door, the village clerk sitting on his steps, the merchant in his counting room dozing over an old news-paper, I look around and in vain, for some sign to identify this once, active, prosperous town.—The ladies, yes, this element of refinement and sociability, are still among us, in superior numbers and quality. But they are not beaulies, though cheerless, for nearly all of our enterprising young men, have emigrated to more prosperous climes. Our seats of learning have wrapped their mantles around them and walked off, to hoot of knowledge and science to more appreciative ears. Our public institutions with pickets extended, are ready for fight—while we are travelling with redoubled velocity down to annihilation. And must this thing continue? This stupor remain unbroken—the diagnosis of which, is the very same with which old 'Rip' was afflicted? Though, the war and its sequence is the cause, prima facie of his depression—still, is there no remedy, no alleviation?

Life and prosperity have sprung up in other portions of the South, but its golden wing has not given us a passing breeze or dropped us a feather. And why is it?—What is the cause? It is because our noble forest does not resound with the shrill whistle of the locomotive; because no busy wharf is planted on the banks of the river which laves our very doors. Emigration, the source of life and civilization, follows only in the track of the Railroad, or rides upon the waves. And the shrewd Yankee, nor the enlightened foreigner can bring a Railroad in their carpet bag, or a Steamboat on their back; hence we are denied the ingenuity of the one and the liberal views of the other. If the public eye could be brought to bear upon us, and see our local advantages and the advantages which would accrue to our sister States and cities by this Railroad connection, we would not long remain thus isolated. Our State Legislature is in session, and our representatives there surely are awake to this great demand, and will urge upon that body its necessity with a truth and vehemence that will be irresistible. For it is the needful prop to a crumbling constituency.

And what advantages will a Railroad bring? or, rather, what advantages are there it will not bring? Our forest will sing and wave over land that will have redoubled its value; our orchards will almost drop apples of gold, and the farmer will see dangling from his ears of corn, not only tassels, but dollars and cents. The Postmaster will have no time to yawn in his door, the clerk to sit idly on his steps, nor the merchant to doze in his counting-room.

Before the war, mules, waggons and sable teamsters, in a measure, supplied the want of a Railroad in conveying the surplus of our abundance to the nearest depot. But, now, nothing but a long train of Railroad coaches will suffice to take from our doors want and discontent, and bring, in return, peace and plenty.

It our native element is not strong enough to give us this desirable acquisition, cannot the public and the stranger be induced, not only from charitable but mercenary motives, to give us a helping hand?—It the love of gain and self aggrandizement is as strongly inherent as I imagine, I think I can offer an inducement.

Yesterday evening while strolling over a neighboring hill (familiarly known as the "Rocky Knoll,") the sun reflected in the distance, a shining substance. I quickly picked up the pebles and discovered the dark heavy mass, to be thickly studed with a yellow metal. Now, the application of science could soon tell whether it were gold or copper. And we do so much need that our resources should be developed and made marketable by a Railroad, that we may know the vast extent of our wealth.

And if the adventurous, chivalric undertaker will rely upon my word, he will not only find mines in the field but will find minds in some queenly shaped head, decked with golden tresses, whose sweet face is lighted up by a pure soul that peeps out of eyes, bright, blue and beautiful. Such was my companion in the stroll, Minnie N. She is the heir apparent to a vast region of land (which no doubt contains the "hidden ore,") being the neice and adopted daughter of a rich old aunt, who is on the shady side of sixty. He who reads and ponders, only is wise. LUCIE LELLAND.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION—SUGGESTIONS OF PRESIDENTS JACKSON AND JOHNSON.

We must not judge too harshly the gentlemen in Congress who propose to change the Federal Constitution by process of amendment. The change may be mischievous, and the motives of the authors not pure or praiseworthy; the idea may be in effect to tamper with the ballot-box so as to secure a party triumph by a process of stuffing on the other hand, and abstraction of votes on the other, which used to be deemed a penitentiary offence; there may be an insolent distinction of color in favor of the black man, and the end of it all may be bitterness and strife. The mode of securing ratification may also be objectionable in that it proposes a snap judgment by Legislatures upon propositions which were not submitted to the people when those Legislatures were chosen, but, on the contrary, carefully withheld, and the game may be thus to extract the assent of States which would not give their consent if the vote of the people could be had, and even where, as in the case of Ohio, Michigan and Connecticut, their assent has been distinctly refused by large majorities.

And yet even for such procedures as this, there is something to be pleaded. We behold in all this a distinct admission that the will of Congress is not the supreme law of the land. The Federal Constitution is that law. The oath to obey it, then, means something. Heretofore we have traveled "outside of the Constitution" whenever there was anything pleasant or profitable, in a party point of view, to be gained by such straying. Henceforth we are to go back, stretching a little here and there, may be, consciences being somewhat worn and elastic nowa-days; but the practice of virtue is to be attempted once more, just as if nothing had happened.

Now, this is, indeed, a most gratifying advance and improvement, and we hail it accordingly. The greatest, the most emphatic compliment paid to the Federal Constitution for some time past is the present proposition to amend it, in order to fix up elections. A year ago a much handier process was the fashion. Now it must be done decently and in order.

But there are broader, and even graver views of this question of amendment. If it be true, as we believe, that we are to have a written organic law which is to be constantly referred to as the character of authority for the various departments of the National Government, then we may admit that it is wise for the people to consider proposed changes in that Constitution.—The fact is undeniable that changes, however cautiously approached or accomplished, may become necessary from time to time. If the mind of the people be directed from time to time to the matter of perfecting their organic law by the modes and agencies which the Constitution itself provides, the tendency of such reflections is to impart a greater knowledge of the Constitution, and a warmer administration for its intrinsic excellence. They cannot fail to regret and disapprove especially the rude manner by which, in party heat and violence, the balance of the Constitution has been destroyed, and the powers of the executive and the judicial departments violently wrested from them, to be conferred upon another department of the Government.—Public opinion will demand that this balance be restored.

We are not unwilling, therefore, to consider propositions for changes, especially those which have no object of party advantage, and operate equally for all, both now and hereafter. One of these propositions for amendment to the Constitution relate to the election of the President in such a way as to secure great simplicity and purity and respect for the popular will. That there are objections to the present mode of election, and especially to the college of electors as the system now works, is a recognized fact. Nor are these inquiries of yesterday only. They date at least as far back as the time of President Jackson, who in five annual messages urged an amendment designed to secure a direct vote to the people for the President. The plan is said to have originated with Nathaniel Macon, one of the wisest and purest statesmen, that ever lived, and, at all events, had his sanction, as well as that of Benton, Van Buren, Findlay of Pennsylvania, Dickerson of New Jersey, Hayne of South Carolina, Hugh L. White of Tennessee, R. M. Johnson of Kentucky, and Holmes of Maine. A scheme with such sanction and such a weight of authority very naturally commended itself to the attention of President Johnson, who, perhaps, more than any living public man, is accustomed to study the principles of our organic law, with a deep appreciation of their excellence. Accordingly, on the 18th of July last, he submitted a proposition for amending the Constitution in this particular. The leading idea of the plan is, that the people in each electoral district into which the States shall be divided shall cast one vote directly for the man of their choice for President. If no election occurs on the first trial, then there is to be a second trial, on a day named, at which the two highest in the late election are to be voted for, and one of the two thus designated as candidates by the people themselves will be the President.

This suggestion, not a new one, and certainly not partisan in its features, would, perhaps, make same striking changes in the present mode of manipulating and electing a President; but none will deny that it merits careful reflection by all who are willing to consider the general subject of amending the Constitution. Such propositions are infinitely more respectable than the merely partisan scheme which passed the House of Representatives the other day; but which, if submitted to conventions of the people freely chosen for that purpose, would not to-day get even one third of the States in its favor.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing wave; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but sour, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
